JOHNSTOWN CENTER.
—Rev. T. Potter, of Richmond, preached in this village last Sunday evening, from the text "For goldens brings contentment and great gain."
—Do not forget the oyster supper given by the Johnstown Temple of Honor this (Thursday) evening. Come one and all and partake of the oysters, come one and all and partake of the oysters, come one and all and partake of the oysters.
—The public for the oysters, come one and all and partake of the oysters, come one and all and partake of the oysters.
—Dr. Henry Palmer, of Janesville, will be present and deliver a lecture.
—Myrtle Division, No. 178, of T was represented at the Grand Division in the city of Milwaukee Nov. 20, 21, by E. C. Burdick.
—Subscribe for the Gazette and don't borrow your neighbors when it costs but $1.50 per year.
—The Mrs. R. Rand's have returned from their trip to the West.
—Rumor says that our village is soon to have another store. Very good, the more stores the better.
—Come out and hear Dr. Palmer's lecture on his European travels.
—Preaching at the church by Rev. T. Potter next Sunday at half past six o'clock p. m.

JOHNSTOWN.
—The farmers of this town have not been idle this fall. A large amount of plowing has been done, and the great bulk of the corn crop is more securely cribbed, and a lot of hay has been gathered for many years. People are now turning their attention to doing up old jobs, preparatory for a freeze-up.
—The patrons of the cheese factory shipped last week some 1,500 pounds of cheese to George H. L. & Co., New York. The business of this factory has been conducted in a very successful manner, and the cheese made is of a high quality.
—Remember the lecture by Dr. Palmer, at the Center, on Tuesday evening, the 25th. Give the Doctor a good house.
—The new town of the county poor farm is all enclosed and is a fine completion, and when done it will be one of the best and most convenient buildings in the county. The County Board did a wise thing when they made the necessary appropriation for building a suitable farm, as the old one had been built a great many years, and was in a dilapidated state, rendering a very heavy outlay necessary to place it in good repair, and when done would have been of slight value compared with the one now being erected.
—Hog buyers are offering $2.35 per hundred, and claim they are losing money on every car load shipped. They are very generous to continue doing that kind of business.
—Last week a coat belonging to Mr. L. L. Fletcher was quite seriously scratched while attempting to free itself from a barbed wire enclosure.
—Threshers are laying up their machines for the season, as the threshing is nearly all done.
—Mrs. R. Beardsley returned last week from Milwaukee, where she has been receiving treatment for deafness. And we are glad to learn that her hearing is considerably improved.
—The unpleasantness in school district No. 2, has not altogether subsided. School in session two days and then an adjournment.
—Subscribe for the Weekly Gazette, and you will have good reading matter to pass away those long winter evenings. It only costs $1.50.

Rebuking a Jurymen.
I once heard this anecdote of Judge Parsons, said the Rev. James Freeman Clarke, the great Massachusetts divine and lawyer. It is said that being about to try a mercantile case, he ordered a jury to be summoned, and among the names was that of Mr. Thomas H. Perkins, the leading merchant of Boston, and a personal friend of Judge Parsons. When the officer made his return, he laid down a $30 bill before the judge.
"What is that?" said Parsons.
"Mr. Perkins says he is very busy indeed, to-day, and prefers to pay his fine."

"Take that back to Mr. Perkins," said the Judge, "and tell him to come here at once; and if he refuses, bring him by force."
When Mr. Perkins appeared, the Judge looked sternly at him and said: "What do you mean, sir, by sending money when you were summoned to sit on the jury?"
—Mr. Perkins replied: "I meant no disrespect to the court, your Honor; but I was exceedingly busy fitting out a ship for the East Indies, and I thought if I paid my fine I might be excused."
"Fitting out a ship for the East Indies, sir?" shouted the Judge; and how happens it that you are able to fit out a ship for the East Indies?"
"Your Honor, I do not understand you." I repeat them, my question, how is it that you are able to fit out a ship for the East Indies? If you do not know, I will tell you. It is because the laws of the country are properly administered. If they were not, you would have no ships. Take your seat, sir, with the jury."

"Practice" not one of experiment, but founded on the laws of Nature, with years of experience and evidence to sustain it, does not tear down, but seeks to make well, to have no treatment, no trifling, no flattery. We know the cause of the disease; no guess work, but knowledge gained of years of experience in the treatment of Chronic diseases exclusively; no encouragement without a prospect. Candid in our opinions, reasonable in our charges, claim not to know everything, or cure everybody, but do lay claim to reason and common sense. We invite the sick, no matter what their ailment, to call and investigate before they abandon hope, make interrogations and decide for yourselves; it will cost nothing as consultation is free. ## BRIEFLETS.

—The weather is bracing up.
—Prof. Severance's dancing school Thursday evening.
—Keep fast to-morrow and thus prepare to eat fast the next day.
—The Guards drilled last night. They will not meet next Thursday night. Too much turkey for work.
—Miss Francis A. Willard will lecture at the Congregational church next Friday evening on "The Pyramids of Egypt."
—The examination of Mason, the supposed burglar, was commenced this afternoon before Justice Prichard. Mr. Masse was the first witness sworn.
—Tom Ingalls on being brought before Justice Prichard yesterday afternoon waived examination, and was held to trial before the Circuit Court.

—Matt Greene was fined $5 and costs by Justice Prichard yesterday, for being drunk and smashing windows. In default of payment he is to work for the public for twenty days.

—Shortly after seven o'clock last night the quick tap of the fire bell called out the fire lads. It only proved to be a burning chimney at the residence of Henry Harris, on North Bluff street. Salt and water stopped it.

—It is said that one of the Guards who hadn't looked at any maps lately, protested against going to Oshkosh because it was outside of the State, while others declared that since the ministers decided that there is no hell, there is no one that believes there is any such place as Oshkosh.

—Justice Balch had to leave his hot tea, last night to go to a matrimonial knot between a man who had come all the way from Minnesota to marry a Milton girl. The knot was tied in a hurry, but tied strong, and the happy pair started out for an all night's ride toward the north.

—Lewis Gilbertson was brought before Justice Balch this afternoon to answer to a charge of assaulting William Roloff, on Guy Carter's farm in the town of Janesville. The case was adjourned until Friday. A peace warrant was also served on Gilbertson for threatening to kill Roloff.

—The Hook & Ladder dance at Apollo hall to-morrow evening promises to be a jolly good time. The boys never do anything by halves, and every arrangement possible has been made to secure the largest amount of real enjoyment. The supper will be furnished at Gray's restaurant at seventy-five cents a couple.

—Barne has now one of the neatest and most attractive meat markets to be found in the State. He has arranged it so as to be as handy as the fingers of a glove, and has furnished it with great taste. His stock is fully in keeping with the surroundings, and the knight of the meat does know how and where to make a nice cut.

—Jo Cook has fallen again. His friends have been hopeful that the bitter experience of the past had caused him to go straight up his spinal column to make a reformed man of him. For a while he struggled nobly, but last night his cups caught him, and he became crazy drunk again. It was only after a lively tussle that he was locked up.

—Dr. McCollister is again heard from. This time he is tying red ribbons in sundry buttonholes at Beaver Dam. This will be gratifying news to his friends here, who can now address their letters to "Dr. McCollister, Beaver Dam," or as the railroad shippers abbreviate in marking goods it would be "Dr. McCollister, B. Dam."

—G. M. Hanchett, the stove man, in another column tells some good things about the "Gold Coin." It is a beautiful heater and is as good as it looks. Hanchett has pushed prices way down, as he wants to close out his stock of stoves before Christmas. Don't sit and shiver, or bother about trying to make some old smoky and fuel eating concern to burn, but call on Hanchett to rig you out.

—A travelling hat renovating establishment struck Janesville lately, and was working up quite a business in old hats, when they pulled up stakes and silently stole away. Now there is a complaint that they overlooked some of the hats which belonged to other folks, and which had been sent them to clean, and that they took them with their other stock. They ought to get in some business that don't require any memory.

—A man named Hastings, who has been living until recently in Chicago, tried to commit suicide at Beloit last Saturday afternoon but missed his mark, the bullet making only a slight flesh wound. He gave as a reason for the deed, that the harder he worked the poorer he got. The financial cramps were too much for him, but he has now concluded to brace up and face the world like a man, rather than die like a coward.

THE WEATHER.

The thermometer at 7 o'clock this morning stood at 25 degrees above zero, and at 2 o'clock at 39 degrees above. Clear.
One year ago to-day at corresponding hours the thermometer stood at 39 and 40 above.

The indications to-day are for the upper lake region, upper Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys, clear or partly cloudy weather, cold northerly winds, becoming variable and shifting to warmer southerly, stationary or lower pressure.

WANTED—A QUORUM.

The Common Council was to have met last night but didn't, owing to there being no quorum. In fact quorums seem so hard to get that it has been suggested that the Mayor should advertise for proposals and make a contract with the lowest bidder to furnish quorums as needed. Last night his Honor answered roll call, he did also Aldermen Lawrence, Joyce, McKinnay, Vanderkirk, and Wilcox. After waiting a little for the stray lambs to be brought into the fold, the gray was shut off and the few faithful ones scattered.

Helmstreet has bought a big lot of Hale's Cough Cordial and is closing it out at 25 cents per bottle.

BURNING BUILDINGS.

Another Case of Incendiarism—A Strange Plot on Foot—More Mystery.

Last evening about six o'clock fire again broke out on what seems to be a doomed block, opposite the Harris Works on River street. It appears that some one went to the front door of Mrs. Dunphy's house while the family were at supper, and tucked some kindling wood saturated with kerosene in between the siding and the plastering next to the door, and set it on fire. The blaze speedily climbed up the side of the house to the roof, and the alarm was sounded. By a speedy use of water the fire was extinguished before any great damage was done, except to the roof, which was badly burned. The furniture was mostly removed, but the whole place was badly deluged with water. The house is a small frame building owned by Mrs. Corson, of Chicago, and occupied by Mrs. Dunphy. Neither house or furniture was covered by insurance.

It is but another chapter of the mysterious doings which have taken place in that vicinity during the last six weeks. Kirk's cooper shop, which stands near by, was found to be on fire about six weeks ago, but was fortunately saved from the flames. Last Friday night some one tried to enter Mrs. Dunphy's house, and not long after the old building on the next lot was set on fire. Saturday night last another frame building just around the corner, on the same block, was set on fire. It seems thus far impossible to assign any reason for these repeated but unsuccessful attempts to burn property. It is suggested that it is possible that it is done by thieves who want to draw away the people from the business streets, so that they may rob stores. There seems to be no one who believes that it is from spite against any of the owners of the property, for they are not known to have enemies.

Another strange circumstance: Mrs. McDougal last evening overheard two fellows standing on the corner of River and School streets, talking in a queer sort of way. One of them pointed to a house occupied by Mr. Barnes, and remarked in a low tone, "that would be a good house to burn to-morrow night. In fact, the air in that neighborhood is full of mystery, and seems thickened with devilish plotting."

THE TEMPLE'S BIRTHDAY.

The committee appointed by the Temple of Honor to arrange for an entertainment in commemoration of the Temple's birthday, have arranged for a festival to be held Friday evening, December 27. The following committees have been appointed:

On music for dancing—Messrs. Osgood, King and Dimock.
On singing—Messrs. Conant, Baldwin and Crossett.
On printing and advertising—Messrs. King and Dimock.
On decorations—Messrs. Field, Haggart, Riker, Crossett, Baldwin and Osgood.
On dance—Messrs. Dimock, Conant and Osgood.
On amusements and refreshments—A. W. Baldwin.

The price of tickets was fixed at $1 a couple, and the friends of the Temple have reason to expect a glorious good time, with such committees to manage it.

THE CIRCUIT COURT.

The Circuit Court to-day is as dry as a man who has breakfasted on mackerel. The libel suit was dragged drearily along, and revealed nothing of marked interest except to those immediately concerned in the action. The mass of evidence being introduced, and which is doubtless necessary to getting at a right decision of the case, is as full of financial statements as the speeches in the last political campaign. It looks as if the end of the case would hardly be reached this week, as Thanksgiving day and Saturday will be cut out of the week's work on the case.

Johnny Roethinger as bondsman Ole Evenson and James Gentile, and is again breathing the fresh air.

THE OSHKOSH SCARE.

"The telegram spoke," (the guards took it as good news) spoken of in a morning paper in advertising the Janesville Guards cigar was no scare at all, but rather a big disappointment to the Guards, as it also was to Croft & Sherer customers who called for Guard Cigars, and found they were entirely out of them, from Saturday until this morning, not being able as yet to get them fast enough to meet the demand. But now they have the largest invoice that ever came to the city, of any one brand. Smoke the Janesville Guard Cigar if you would have the best.

Small profits and quick sales. Hale's Cough Cordial 25 cents per bottle at Helmstreet's.

CITY NOTICES.

—How is it that Helmstreet sells Hale's Cough Cordial at 25 cents per bottle?

—Now the new goods are arriving at Wheelock's Crockery—New Lamps of all kinds, pretty and cheap. Also many novelties. Composition Statuary, "Can't you talk," and "By Jingo." Look them over.

Mrs. Sarah A. Elliott.

Authors of "Mrs. Elliott's Housewife," Oxford, N. C. writes: I was among the first that used the "London Hair Color Restorer" in the section, and recommended it to M. A. & O. A. Santos, Norfolk, Va., as the most beautiful hair dresser and preserver I had ever seen. I was advised by an eminent physician to use it. Since doing so, it has proved so satisfactory in restoring and beautifying my hair, as well as strengthening my eyesight, that I have recommended it to the druggists here in Oxford, Raleigh, and a great many of my friends, and believe I have from what others say, caused it to have a wide and extended sale, and deservedly so, as it is decidedly the most cleanly and effective hair restorer before the American people. The "London Hair Color Restorer" can be obtained at all the leading druggists at 75 cents a bottle, or $4 for six bottles.

Mr. Metcalf presented the following report and resolution and moved their adoption:

Committee No. 1 respectfully report in relation to tax certificates No. 131, sale of 1871. The land described therein is W<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> of S<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> of W<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub>, when it should have been the W<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> of S<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> of the N<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> of the Sec. 16, T. 1 N. 1 E. The holder of this certificate asks payment therefor. We therefore recommend the passage of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Clerk of Rock County be and he is hereby ordered to draw an order on the Treasurer of said county in favor of the holder of the aforesaid certificate No. 131 for the amount due thereon, cancel said certificate and charge the amount so paid back to the town of Bradford.

Report and resolution adopted.
Mr. Metcalf, from Committee No. 1, further reported:

The taxes were $91.37 and advertising fifty cents making $91.87. In the Second Ward, City of Beloit, the aforesaid 1/2 of lot 4 in Block 47, was returned as being in Block 41, and so advertised and could not be sold. Taxes $16.63 and advertising 25 cents, making $16.88.

Your Committee recommend that these taxes be charged back to the City of Beloit.

Your Committee further report an error in return of W<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> of N<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> Sec. 18, Town of Bradford, which has a tax sale by the County Treasurer, tax $16.41 and advertising 25 cents, making $16.66, which we also recommend to be charged back to the town of Bradford.
